Nathan Cassidy: The Man in the Arena

Malcolm Hardee Award nominee and Best Show Winner at the Buxton Fringe 2014 (and nominee 2015/2016) Nathan Cassidy explores bravery in a volatile world.

As Obama said after Trump's victory, "We lick our wounds, we brush ourselves off, we get back in the arena." Get back in the arena with Nathan Cassidy!

Do one thing every day that scares you - Cassidy at his brave and honest best. No gimmicks, no fucking about, no prisoners.

Are any of us brave? What does bravery look like? Nathan's most challenging show to date - he'll show you what's he's no good at, what scares him, and he'll ask you to be brave. The world is screwed, and the way to fight back is not through division and criticism but through bravery!

As Theodore Roosevelt said: 'It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena.'

"A great comedian...his rapport with the audience is instant and constant. Nathan Cassidy seems like becoming a firm favourite" ★★★★★ Broadway Baby

'The audience loved it... inspired me to liken the comedian to one of the greats.' ★★★★★ Mumble Comedy - Edinburgh 2016

'Turns a show into an event' Steve Bennett, Chortle - Edinburgh 2016

'The entire second row is pissed...and there are only two rows' Steve Bennett, Chortle

"Astonishing, tear-inducing" Jay Richardson, Fest

"Cassidy has a real commitment to making intelligent shows about fun ideas" Fringe Guru
